I have quite a bit of data on the early Henningtons of Copiah County, from a book compiled by my father's cousin Mary Helen Sims of Vicksburg, MS. From her book: "The Hennington family was originally from England. We pick them up in this country in the Orangeburg District of SC, and know that in the early years of the 19th century 3 Hennington brothers and their widowed mother migrated to MS, to what is now Jones County, in 1818. The brothers' names were Thomas, Henry and John, their mother was Ann Hennington Howell (apparently married after coming to MS. She was the first person to be buried in the Hennington/Flowers Cemetery northeast of Crystal Springs, MS on the Hennington estate. She died when she was 75 years old on Aug. 3, 1845. Her sons all became Methodist ministers."
